

Office of International Medical Student Education
Summer 2023 MS1 Opportunities

COUNTRY	INSTITUTION/ ORGANIZATION	INSTITUTION/ ORGANIZATION WEBSITE	PROJECT/OPPORTUNITIES	PREREQUISITES	REMOTE POSSIBILITY	WCM FACULTY/ DEPARTMENT	E-MAIL FACULTY CONTACT
Pakistan	Center for Excellence for Trauma and Emergencies (CETE)/ The Aga Khan University	https://www.aku.edu/mcpk/cete/Pages/home.aspx	Emergency and Acute care research focused. Students will have the opportunity to participate in a broad range of ongoing research projects on a diversity of topics including out of hospital CPR, telehealth, disaster preparedness.	Interest in Emergency Medicine or acute care	Both in person and remote opportunities are possible.	Walid Farooqi/ Emergency Medicine	Walid.farooqi@med.cornell.edu
Tanzania	Kilimanjaro Christian Medical College	http://www.kcmc.ac.tz/	Community health studies	none		Dr. Estomih Mtui/Clinical Anatomy and Radiology	emptui@med.cornell.edu
Thailand	Chulalongkorn University Faculty of Medicine, Bangkok	https://www.chula.ac.th/en/academic/faculty-of-medicine/	Research and community work in multiple specialty areas including: Pediatrics, Tropical Medicine, HIV and LGBTQ+ research	none		Dr. Thanakorn Jirasevijinda/Pediatrics	thj2002@med.cornell.edu
Africa / Kampala	Collaboration with Cornell University and the Infectious Disease Institute at Makerere University in Kampala.	https://research.cornell.edu/research/ks_detect-kaposi-sarcoma-early-diagnosis	This is a collaboration with a team of engineers, epidemiologists and pathologists in the US and Africa, to develop new point of care diagnostic methods for the diagnosis of Kaposi sarcoma (KS). Roles - Assist with testing new device—for biopsy, collection, and running assays in Africa	Basic molecular techniques beneficial	Dr. Cesarman's lab at WCM; Dr. Erickson's lab at Cornell/Ithaca, and/or potential travel to Kampala to work with international team.	Dr. Ethel Cesarman/Pathology and Laboratory Medicine	ecesarm@med.cornell.edu
Multiple countries		https://vivo.weill.cornell.edu/display/cw_id-kyr9001	Identify urinary biomarkers that can be used to guide TB treatment: Roles: Sample and data analysis	Basic background in biochem	This research can be conducted locally at WCM	Dr. Kyu Rhee/Infectious Diseases	kyr9001@med.cornell.edu
India and Ghana	Collaboration with Global Health Initiative / Global Musculoskeletal Health Equity Division at HSS	https://www.hss.edu/global-musculoskeletal-health.asp	Anesthesia, critical care and pain management/global musculoskeletal health equity	Basic background and interest in anesthesia, critical care and pain mgmt..		Dr. Mark A. Brouillette, Co-Director, Global Health Initiative (GHI) Assistant Attending, Dept of Anesthesiology, Critical Care and Pain Mgmt; Co-Chair, Global Musculoskeletal Health Equity Division at HSS, and Dr. Swetha Pakala, Co-Director (GHI)	brouillem@hss.edu pakalas@hss.edu

Tanzania, Dar Es Salaam	Collaboration with Muhimbili Orthopedic Institute	https://www.moi.ac.tz/	Building an epilepsy registry	Basic knowledge of Redcap data mgmt..	Remote and abroad	Dr. Caitlin Hoffman Assistant Professor of Neurological Surgery, WCM	Ceh2003@med.cornell.edu
PAHO	PAHO	http://www.paho.org/hq/index.php?ltemid=4245	Internships available in a variety of areas of work in Pan-American health.	none
Uganda Village Project	Uganda Village Project	https://ugandavillageproject.org/	Internships in community healthcare	none			info@ugandavillageproject.org
WHO	WHO	http://www.who.int/careers/internships/en/	Internships in a variety of areas	none			